

Unfinished Business

39th Annual Conference of the Australian Historical Association
Full Program

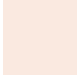

UNSW
SYDNEY

Australian
Historical Association

Key

-  Australian Women's History Network (AWHN)
-  Economic History Stream
-  Environmental History Network
-  Migration History Network
-  Public History Stream
-  Religious History Association
-  Sydney Southeast Asia Centre (SSEAC)

Note – This schedule only lists up to 2 paper authors. For those papers with 3 or more authors, full details can be found in the Full Program & Abstracts document.

Monday 29 November

HDR & ECR DAY/MEETING DAY

9:00am–10:15am AEDT

ROUNDTABLE
1.1.1. Digital Archives: What and How
Chair: Imogen Wegman

Speakers: Richard Neville, Tim Sherratt, Nick Schapowal & Alana Piper

11:00am–12:15pm AEDT

ROUNDTABLE
1.2.1. History Work Outside the Academy
Chair: Georgia McWhinney

Speakers: Peter Hobbins & Cathy Perkins

1:00pm–2:15pm AEDT

ROUNDTABLE
1.3.1. Publishing in Popular Media
Chair:

Speakers: Georgina Arnott, Alan Vaarwerk, Frank Bongiorno

3:00pm–4:15pm AEDT

ROUNDTABLE
1.4.1. Publishing in History Australia
Chair: Kate Fullagar

Speakers: Editors of History Australia

ROUNDTABLE
1.4.2. Bursary Meeting
Chair: Tim Rowse

11:00am–1:00pm AEDT

EXECUTIVE MEETING BY INVITATION

11:00am–1:00pm AEDT

HISTORIES OF SOUTHEAST ASIA MEETING

2:30pm–4:30pm AEDT

HEADS OF HISTORY

2:30pm–4:15pm AEDT

BUSINESS MEETING
Authors contributing to the Cambridge History of Southeast Asia

Chair: Robert Cribb

5:00pm–6:45pm AEDT

WELCOME & KEYNOTE
Welcome to Country: Aunty Maxine Ryan
Conference Opening: Claire Annesley & Melanie Oppenheimer

Chair: Alison Holland

Shino Konishi
The Unfinished Business of Aboriginal History

Tuesday 30 November

Day One

8:30am–10:15am AEDT

PLENARY PANEL
Unfinished Business: First Nations Provocations
Chair Leah Lui-Chivizhe

Speakers: Megan Davis, Crystal McKinnon, Oosca Monaghan

11:00am–12:15pm AEDT

First Nations	Environmental	SSEAC	Religious	AWHN	War	Public History	Convicts	Social & Cultural	Colonialism, Violence, Slavery	General
2.2.1. The Presence of the Past: Toward a dialogic historiography in cross-cultural studies	2.2.2. Carbon Colonies: Decarbonising Imperial Histories	2.2.3. Contested Terrains: Cities and Hinterlands in Postwar Southeast Asian Communist Movements, 1945-1975	2.2.4. Reconciling religious and Indigenous histories	2.2.5. Spaces and scales of activism: Feminisms in interwar Australia	2.2.6. New Histories of World War 1	2.2.7. Contested Heritage	2.2.8. Convict Rebellions	2.2.9. Statues are just the beginning: Critical perspectives in historical Elite Studies	2.2.10. Reconciliation and recognition	2.2.11. Currents of decolonisation in Australia and its region in the 20th century
Chaired by Tiffany Shellam	Chaired by Katie Holmes	Chaired by Annie Pohlman	Chaired by Shurlee Swain	Chaired by Isobelle Barrett Meyering	Chaired by Romain Fathi	Chaired by Stephen Pascoe	Chaired by Tony Moore	Chaired by Desley Deacon	Chaired by Lisa Ford	Chaired by Claire Lowirie
Sophie Loy-Wilson Chinese Australia? Writing histories of Chinese settlement in troubled times	Nancy Cushing The Australian Agricultural Company and energy transition in New South Wales, 1825-1847	Thomas Barker Debating Culture in the Shadow of the Cold War: Indonesian Cinema 1950-1966	Catherine Bishop Writing Annie Lock and the minefield of mission history	James Keating They learn nothing, they forget everything: stories of women’s enfranchisement in interwar Australia	Bart Ziino Recasting the soldiers’ vote on conscription: new perspectives on an old issue	Claire Baxter Contextualising Exiled Heritage: Are Statue Parks A Soluton for Contested Heritage?	Tamsin O’Conner & The late Ian Duffield Death or Liberty! The Language of Rebellion and a Convict Outbreak at Port Macquarie in 1825.	Sybil Nolan Robert Menzies, Inside and Outside the Tent	Tim Rowse Two publics or one? The campaign to recognise Indigenous Australians in the constitution	Jessica Urwin Challenging nuclear colonialism: Maralinga and Indigenous nuclear survivor networks, 1986-8
Laura Rademaker History on the rocks?	Julie McIntyre Decolonising Nik-kin-ba (place of coal): An Awabakal perspective on lower Hunter Valley mining	Matthew Galway Radical Phnom Penh: The City and Cultural Revolution Fervour in Cambodia’s Global Sixties	Bronwyn Shepherd Seeing Makarrwala: missionaries, anthropologists, and spaces of representation	Michelle Staff Bringing the world home: Australian feminists, local activism and internationalism, 1919-39	Alanna Dargan Anzac as a Political Pawn: The Commemoration of the Centenary of WWI in the Australian Parliament	Nikolas Orr A Monumental Sculptor’s Relation to Power: Margel Hinder and the Civic Park Fountain Plaques	Meg Foster Old Legends, New Names? Writing Subaltern Bushrangers into National Histories	Nicholas Brown The Elocution of the ‘Broadbacked’ Australian Professional	Andrew Gunstone Unfinished Business: the Australian reconciliation process	Angela Woollacott Decolonisation and the language of human rights in mid-20th century Australia
Miranda Johnson Frontier Conflict and the Politics of History in Post-Settler Societies	Liz Conor Traces of Sovereignty: Smoke Plumes in Colonial Prints - through the Pall of the Climate Crisis	Amrita Malhi The Trans-Border Muslim Communism of Malaya’s Displaced Muslim Brotherhood Party	Sarah Gilbert Contemplation in the streets: Catholic nuns at the coalface of 'reconciliation.'	Kate Laing Interwar campaigns for Constitutional reform in the Australian women’s movement	Richard Dunley The Impact of British First World War Propaganda on the Interwar United States		James Bradley & Tamsin O’Connor The Pirate Bushrangers, the Convicts Prevention Act and the Moral Status of Convicts	Christine Wallace Entangled Establishment Elites and Bohemian Elites: The Maie Casey, Patrick White Friendship		Nicholas Hoare ‘The Voice of the Pacific’: The Pacific Islands Monthly and the Threat of Decolonisation.

Tuesday 30 November

Day One

1:00pm–2:15pm AEDT

First Nations	Environmental	SSEAC	Religious	AWHN	War	Public History	Convicts	Social & Cultural	Colonialism, Violence, Slavery	General
2.3.1. Privileged narratives and spaces: the (in)visibility of Indigenous histories in the archive	2.3.2. Grassroots protest	2.3.3. War Work: Mobilising Ayahs and Amahs in Australia and Asia	2.3.4. Religion, politics, and crises of faith	2.3.5. Remembering 20th century women’s activism	2.3.6. Communities and War	2.3.7. Dispatches from the Culture Wars: The Legacy of Race in US History and Contemporary Politics	2.3.8. Conviction Politics: modes of resistance by transported political prisoners	2.3.9. Sounds of Australian history	2.3.10. Difficult archives	2.3.11. Good Ship Commonwealth
Chaired by Kate Darian-Smith	Chaired by Emily O’Gorman	Chaired by Sophie Loy-Wilson	Chaired by Joanna Cruickshank	Chaired by James Keating	Chaired by Romain Fathi	Chaired by Chin Jou	Chaired by Kirsten McKenzie	Chaired by Melissa Bellanta	Chaired by Mark Dunn	Chaired by Frank Bongiorno
Rebe Taylor Indigenising digitisation: Protecting Palawa knowledges in the GA Robinson Collection, SLNSW	Heather Goodall Green Nightmares: Resident Action and Jungle Warfare in the Suburbs	Victoria Haskins The Ayahs' Great War: Glimpses from Australia and England	Joel Barnes Evolutionary Science and Religious Belief: Evidence from Denominational Student Publications	Natasha Walker Agency and Activism: The Transnational Network of the Feminist Press, 1910–1914	Fiona McLeod A nightmare, God forgot us I am certain': Australian Army Nurses in Casualty Clearing Stations, WWI	Deirdre O’Connell Outlawing Critical Race Theory	Daisy Bailey The Emotions of Exile and Activism in 'The Irish Exile and Freedom’s Advocate', 1850– 1851	Kim Kemmis Opera in strange places: Count Ercole and Anne Filippini and the boundaries of high art	Sucharita Sen Interpersonal Relationships and Non-Sexual Intimacies in British India	Benjamin Mountford & Robert Fletcher ‘An Act of Imperial Parliament could separate us as it unites us’: WA Secession and Imperial Affairs
Tiffany Shellam & Shona Coyne Entangled Knowledges: biocultural collections and interdisciplinary collaborations	Andrea Gaynor From Star Swamp to Roe 8: The Unfinished Business of Urban Conservation Conflict	Claire Lowrie & Charmaine Lam Chinese Amahs in White Australia: Domestic Workers and the Second World War	Alexander Parsons Government Spain Fights Our Battle': Australian Anglican Responses to the Spanish Civil War	Catherine Dewhirst Subversive, Radical and Defiant: Italian–Australian Women during World War II	Brett Holman Mutual Aid in an Air-Raid? Community Civil Defence in Britain, 1914–18	Samuel Watts The Lost Cause and the Big Lie: Confederate Legacies in Contemporary America	Tony Moore When the Pen is Mightier than the Pike: Media activists transported as convicts to Australia	Toby Martin et al. Performing the Musical Past: reimagining 1826 Sydney concerts in 2021	Jeremy Martens Forced labour and apprenticeship in the Western Australian pastoral industry, 1840–1860	Carmel Pascale Celebrating the Nation: Taking Account of the Imperial Ideal in the Early Federation
	Rachel Goldlust Expanding ‘the archive’ to include the stories of women homesteaders	Christina Twomey Friends or Servants: Amahs in cold war Malaysia and Singapore	Sean Coker Take Up Thy Pen and Talk: Johann Georg Hamann's 'Word'	Sharon Crozier-De Rosa Memory-Keepers: Women Activists’ Strategies to Preserve their History	Meggie Hutchison Surviving Beyond War: Veterans, Old Age and Care	Hollie Pich Jim Crow 2.0? Voter Suppression in the Contemporary US	Short Film	Rachel Campbell The Reception of Corroboree	Kirsten Wright & Nicola Laurent Difficult Records: Archives, Historians and Trauma	Carolyn Holbrook Referendum Hesitancy: The case of the 1944 Fourteen Powers Referendum

3:00pm–4:15pm AEDT

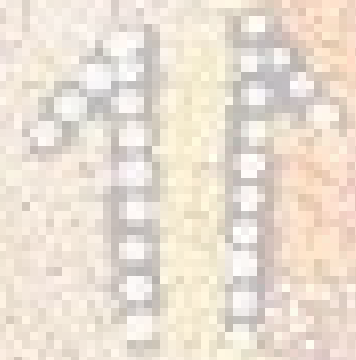

First Nations	Environmental	SSEAC	Religious	AWHN	War	Public History	Convicts	Social & Cultural	Colonialism, Violence, Slavery	General
2.4.1. Exploring Country	2.4.2. Big Histories	2.4.3. Work in Progress I: the new Cambridge History of Southeast Asia	2.4.4. Women, Men and Religious History	2.4.5. Unfinished business of second-wave feminism	2.4.6. Burying the dead	2.4.7. The impact of collaborative and community public history projects across Australia	2.4.8. Visualising Convict Resistance	2.4.9. Speaking positions: challenges to conventional histories	2.4.10. Colonialism, race and science	2.4.11. The Red Cross and the Cold War, decolonisation and development
Chaired by Shino Konishi Jennifer Jones A Small Matter of Recognition: Unfinished Business on the Blacks’ Spur	Chaired by Rachel Goldlust James Dunk Towards an Australian Planetary History	Chaired by Robert Cribb Helen Creese Family and Gender Regimes in Early Southeast Asia	Chaired by Laura Rademaker Katharine Massam Good, that will be all of them: the unfinished business of women and religion	Chaired by Zora Simic Rosa Campbell Australian feminist entanglements with Chinese and Vietnamese Communism, 1969–1979	Chaired by Bart Ziino Alexandra McCosker Unfinished business: pilgrimage to Papua New Guinea in the era of adventure travel	Chaired by Tanya Evans Tanya Evans History, Community and Collaboration in the Blue Mountains	Chaired by Mark Finnane Hamish Maxwell-Stewart Ensuring that business remains unfinished: Convict absconding 1820–60.	Chaired by Sophie Loy-Wilson Nadia Rhook Pasts beyond ‘discipline’? Reading challenges to 'History' in contemporary First Nations poetry	Chaired by Alison Bashford Lyndall Ryan et al. Mass Poisoning of Aboriginal People on the Australian Colonial Frontier	Chaired by Melanie Oppenheimer Jordan Evans The League of Red Cross Societies and the development of blood transfusion during decolonisation
Ben Silverstein et al. Following the rails: Narrating the NSW railways through Aboriginal peoples, Countries, and histories	Joy McCann On the edge: Towards a more than human history of Antarctica's ice in the Anthropocene	Hans Pols & Warwick Anderson (WA not attending) Health and Disease: From Epidemic to Lifestyle Diseases	Brenton Griffin Permanent Outsiders? Two Controversies Involving Mormons in Australia, A Century Apart	Jacquelyn Baker ‘Was there any activism?’: Finding the splinters of the WLM in Melbourne, 1976–1980s	Romain Fathi Cremation and body disposal in World War I: an anthropological rupture in funerary practices?	Noah Riseman (Re)constructing Australia’s Transgender History: Building the Personal, Community and Collective	Monika Schwarz ‘We are all alike’: The collective visualization of female convict lives	Kathryn Keeble Who gets to speak in Australia? The Drover’s Wife and The Nightingale reclaim the frontier	Deborah Oxley et al. The biological consequences of European imperialism in Southern Africa	Susanne Schech Navigating the Cold War in the 1960s Cuba Crisis: The Red Cross through an assemblage lens
Samantha Owen et al. Reconnecting to Rivers: Creating an Archive at Blackadder Creek	Daniel May Fire suppression or fire oppression? A framework for historical understanding	Mina Roces Families and Clans	Matthew Grubits Reassessing Russell and Beamish	Anne O'Brien Homelessness as a Feminist Issue: Revisiting the 1970s and 1980s		Shurlee Swain Where am I in the Story? Reflections on the Writing of Collaborative Welfare History Lorina Barker et al. Creating Cultural Spaces Online and OnCountry: A COVID–19 reality to zoomland	Matthew Allen Samuel Marsden’s Political Economy: Agriculture and Convict Reform in Early New South Wales	Max Kaiser ‘More and better gum leaves’? Anti-racist threads in Australian culture in the 1940s and early 1950s	Michelle Bootcov The Australia Antigen: First Nations’ Blood, ‘First World’ Science	Anna Wilkinson The League of Red Cross Societies' Development Program and the 1964 Southeast Asian Forum

5:00pm–6:15 pm AEDT

2.5.1. Roundtable: Marking Country: A Digital Atlas of Deep History		2.5.3. Roundtable: Unfinished Business in Southeast Asian History		2.5.5. Keynote: The unfinished business of reproductive justice: histories & futures of abortion in the age of decriminalisation
Chaired by Lorina Barker Ann McGrath, Jackie Huggins, Laura Rademaker & Mike Jones		Chaired by Robert Cribb Katharine McGregor, Patrick Jory, Nathalie Nguyen, Julia Martinez & Susie Protschky		Chaired by Samantha Owen Catherine Kevin

Wednesday 1 December

Day Two

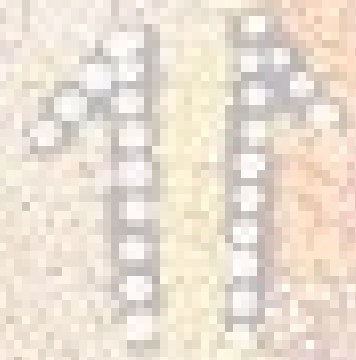

9:00am–10:15pm AEDT

First Nations	Environmental	SSEAC	Migration	AWHN	War	Public History	Economic History	Social & Cultural	Colonialism, Violence, Slavery	General
3.1.1. Aboriginal education	3.1.2. Knowing Country, Knowing the Inland	3.1.3. Roundtable: Author meets readers: Patrick Jory's History of Manners and Civility in Thailand	3.1.4. Migrant Communities and Troubling Histories	3.1.5. Public and Private Spaces	3.1.6. Gendering World War 2	3.1.7. Museums, Public Spaces and the Production of Australian History	3.1.8. The Future of the History of Economics in Australia	3.1.9. Language, Identity and Class	3.1.10. 'No place else but home': the need for a National Resting Place for Ancestral Remains	3.1.11. Southern Earth Histories: Geology, Anthropology, and the Politics of a Continent
Chaired by Johanna Perheentupa	Chaired by Jessica Urwin	Chaired by Adrian Vickers	Chaired by Andonis Piperoglou	Chaired by Anne O'Brien	Chaired by Noah Riseman	Chaired by Naomi Parry	Chaired by Jack Fahey	Chaired by Martyn Lyons	Chaired by Leah Lui-Chivizhe	Chaired by Alison Bashford
Rhonda Povey Promises and lies: Aboriginal education in the Kimberley, 1910–1955	Katie Holmes & Lilian Pearce Broken Hill: Inland water dreaming	Craig Reynolds, Jane Ferguson, Patrick Jory & Robert van Krieken	Yianni Cartledge Unresolved: How a Period of Turmoil Shaped Early Greek Migration to Australia (1900–45)	Jade Hastings The Case of Ann Mara: Judicial Bias in 19th–Century South Australian Rape Trials	Lisa Hackett Witches, Angels, WASP & ATA-Girls: Use of uniformed, Second World War female pilots in propaganda	Guy Hansen The Unfinished Business of Public History in Australian Museums and Libraries	Claire Wright New Possibilities for Collaboration: Histories of Economics and Histories of Capitalism	Amanda Laugesen Finding an ‘Australian voice’? Constructing ‘Australian English’ 1940–1960	Anne Maree Payne No place else but home' 1	Alessandro Antonello Gondwanaland as geopolitics: geology, environment, and international relations since the 1960s
Beth Marsden & Dr Aunty Doris Paton Authority, Authorship and Provenance: Archives of Aboriginal Education	Emily O'Gorman & Danielle Carney Flakelar Interwoven lives: Re-reading colonial archives for Wayilwan women’s knowledge		Themistocles Kritikakos Memory & Cooperation: Genocide recognition efforts among Armenians, Greeks & Assyrians in Australia	Caroline Ingram A Very Lamentable Case': Indigenous women defendants and the Courts of General sessions Act (WA)	Liam Barnsdale Boys into soldiers: Secondary school cadet training in Australia, 1939–1945	Mariko Smith Unsettling History Through the Museum	John Lodewijks The History of Economics in Australia: Unfinished Business?	Caitlin Adams What happened to class? The language of social hierarchy in early NSW	Heidi Norman No place else but home' 2	Jarrod Hore Energising Colonial Geology: The Carboniferous Imaginary and the Gifts of Gondwana
Jason Gibson & Alistair Paterson Schooling the Scholar: How Aboriginal Stockmen Educated Professor Berndt	Ruth Morgan Camel country and the edges of empire		Ilona Fekete Sons of Nimrod Down Under: The Ethno-Genesis of Hungarians in the Diaspora and its Reception	Emma Carson Separated Spouses and the Construction of Intimacy in World War II	Samantha Grey Potent Males and Patent Females: Sterility investigation, male infertility and World War II	Lisa Murray Froth and mirrors: Delving into an incomplete brewery business archive	Paul Oslington Economists and Historians: Short History of a Complex Relationship	Richard White The Unfinished Nation: Contesting Symbols of Australia		Amy Way In the Eye of the Beholder: John Walter Gregory and the Manipulation of Aboriginal Antiquity

Wednesday 1 December

Day Two

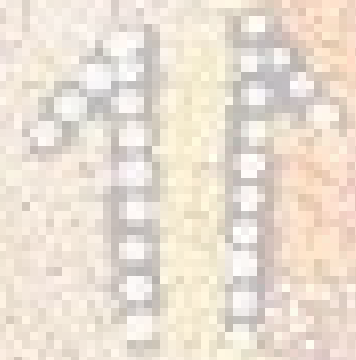

11:00am–12:15pm AEDT

First Nations	Environmental	SSEAC	Migration	AWHN	War	Public History	Economic History	Social & Cultural	Colonialism, Violence, Slavery	General
3.2.1. Law, Land and Colonialism	3.2.2. Intersections of Australian and Environmental Histories	3.2.3. Sovereignty, land and the environment in colonial Southeast Asia	3.2.4. Migrant Communities and the Unfinished Business of Chinese Business II Panel	3.2.5. The Business of Women’s Bodies I	3.2.6. Family histories	3.2.7. The Politics of Heritage	3.2.8. Trade, Money and National Income	3.2.9. Clothes and Bodies	3.2.10. Colonial Violence I	3.2.11. Rough around the edges: Colonial incursions in northern Australia
Chaired by Alison Holland	Chaired by Julie McIntyre	Chaired by Susie Protschky	Chaired by Bernard Keo	Chaired by Catherine Kevin	Chaired by Tanya Evans	Chaired by Guy Hansen	Chaired by Claire Wright	Chaired by Julia Martinez	Chaired by Amanda Nettelbeck	Chaired by Claire Brennan
Imogen Wegman Fringe benefits: Van Diemonian common and Crown lands	Anna Clark Acknowledgement of Country: placing History in Australia	Natasha Hamilton-Hart The re-invention of partnership: New Zealand’s 'founding document' in Southeast Asian perspective	Nathan Gardner United we stood but divided we were: Chinese Australian unity and the 1984 immigration debate	Cassandra Byrnes Interrupted Reproduction: Abortion in Queensland	Anne-Marie Condè Elegy written in a Tasmanian churchyard	Alexandra Dellios Intersecting the Migrant, Industrial and Environmental Heritages of the Latrobe Valley, Australia	David Blaazer Barely started business: reflections on the underdevelopment of Australian monetary history	Lorinda Cramer Bachelors and Breadwinners: Masculinity and Businesswear in the Synthetic Age, 1950–1970	Naomi Parry Looking into Shadows: Musquito and Black Jack, and a Death Mask made of Country	Wayne Bradshaw On building a Church in the north: Father William McGinty’s time in Bowen
Colin Milner Robert Randolph Garran and Jefferson's Ghost	Adam Gall Beyond narrative: On the diversity of argumentation in Australian environmental history	Gareth Knapman Penang and Port Jackson as 'uninhabited islands': British sovereignty and terra nullius	Mei-Fen Kuo Chinese Diaspora in Australia on the Cold War: The Case of Two Chinas in the 1956 Olympic Game	Paige Donaghy False conceptions and the incertitude of pregnancy in early modern Europe	Sarah Fulford The Overlooked Anzacs	Vera-Simone Schulz Potentially the Pompeii of East Africa': Architectural Heritage Along the Swahili Coast and Beyond	David Meredith Unfinished business: Australia's debt to the Aboriginal nations in 1900	Melissa Bellanta Tropical Whites: Menswear and Power at the Crossroads of Australia and Asia, 1900–1939	Ryan Stewart Henry Kendall – An Outsider Reporting Violence and Massacre on the Australian Frontier	Patrick White From untamed frontier to prosperous estate: the historic struggle to colonise northern Australia
Paula Jane Byrne Pencil Markings Project – Geography of Power 1850s	Elizabeth Heffernan Challenging Australian histories of the First World War using environmental methods	James Warren & Lisa Woodward A tale of three storm surges, and three towns, under three flags	Sophie Loy-Wilson A ghost economy? Reconstructing Chinese Australian family business in Australia via court records	Kylie Pywell The woman abortionist: A case study of Isabella Elizabeth Downey 1880–1912	Patricia Downes The unfinished business of the convict legacy: military convicts in Australia	Jessica Horton et al. Not the Time for a History Lesson: Unsettling the Memorialisation of Angus McMillan	David Lee The Australian Wheat Trade to the People's Republic of China, 1956–72	Averyl Gaylor Dance and the Unfinished Body	Stephen Gapps Revisiting the Bathurst War 1822–24	Tianna Killoran Far more than Satisfactory: Japanese Small Businesses in North Queensland before 1941

Wednesday 1 December

Day Two

1:00pm–2:15pm AEDT

First Nations	Environmental	SSEAC	Migration	AWHN	War	Public History	Economic History	Social & Cultural	Colonialism, Violence, Slavery	General
3.3.1. Indigenous Self-Determination: Mediated, Contested, Unfinished	3.3.2. Local and Regional Conservation	3.3.3. Work in Progress II: the new Cambridge History of Southeast Asia	3.3.4. Unsettling Chinese Australian history and heritage	3.3.5. The Business of Women’s Bodies II	3.3.6. Confronting Difficult Pasts	3.3.7. Confronting Histories of Absence and Erasure	3.3.8. Class, labour and the economy	3.3.9. From Courtrooms to Bedrooms: Sex, power and subjectivity, 1850–1950	3.3.10. Colonial Violence II	3.3.11. Imperialism and aftermaths
Chaired by Laura Rademaker	Chaired by Heather Goodall	Chaired by Robert Cribb	Chaired by Nadia Rhook	Chaired by Zora Simic	Chaired by Avril Alba	Chaired by Jan Lanicek	Chaired by Matthew Birchall	Chaired by Penny Russell	Chaired by Grace Karskens	Chaired by Jarrod Hore
Johanna Perheentupa Indigenous Self-Determination in Education: Australia and Finland in the 1970s	Alexandra Knight Saving Poulton Park: Campaigning to Maintain an Entire Living River System	Michael Barr Constitutions: Shaping sovereignty, representation, and power	Juanita Kwok Re-evaluating Local History and Heritage	Jane Carey Population, Reproduction and British Settler Colonialism in the Early Twentieth Century	Angel Alcalde Decision-making processes and genocide in the Spanish Civil War	Bolin Hu The Commemorations of National Humiliation Day: Rituals, Memory and Chinese Australian Identity	Fiona Gatt The forgotten class? The ambiguities and common threads of the petite bourgeoisie	Jessica Lake Sex, Speech & Social Status: Women’s Struggles for Self-definition via Slander Law in 19th Century	Angus Murray Murungiyalinya-ganha yilimadha Giiland-dyilang: Warrior History and Wiradjuri Memory	Alex Little Imperial responsibility and the Australian contribution to the Boxer Rebellion, 1900–1901
Alison Holland ‘A Failure...No-One to Blame But Themselves’? Media Representations of the Abolition of ATSIC	Sharyn Clarke Unfinished Business: Belair National Park	Jane Ferguson & Simon Creak Structures for Play: Music and Sport as Popular Culture in Southeast Asian History	Paul Macgregor Contributors or colonisers – the recuperation of Chinese artefacts into the settlement narrative	Alison Downham Moore The Unfinished Business of the Dark Side of Gynaecology	David Stahel Nazi Women in Command: Margarete Guderian – the ‘chief of staff’ of General Heinz Guderian	Caroline Smith Holocaust remembrance in the Italian province of Alessandria: the narrative of the ‘righteous’.	Alexander Millmow How the Interwar Queensland Economy Captivated Two Prominent English Economists	Alecia Simmonds Transnational encounters between love and law in fin de siècle breach of promise of marriage cases	Tim Calabria & Catherine Gay Rethinking Frontier Massacres and their Accompanied Modalities of Governance, 1790–1928	Thomas Rogers The New South Wales contingent to Sudan, 1885: Colonial commemoration and commentary
Amy Thomas Indigenous futures in the past: the Yipirinya School story and ‘self-determination’	Cindi Davey Conservation in Wongi forest: effects of the regional forest agreement process	Philip Hirsch Land regimes: custom, control, commodification and countermovement	Karen Schamberger Lambing Flat: Riots, Humiliation and Erasure	Kirra Minton ‘With frankness, with knowledge, but most of all, with sincerity’: sex education in Dolly magazine	Md Forkan Ali Rethinking Community in Post-War South Asia: Kashmir in Focus	Andrew Beattie Overcoming silence and neglect? Histories of Allied internment in Germany after the Second World War	Nicolás Ignacio Gomez Baeza Workers from the southernmost: narratives on labour history of Patagonia and Tierra del Fuego	Alexandra Roginski Suntans on Parade: Physical Culture and Regimented Joy on the Home Front during World War II	James Cassidy Three Outlaws, Two Brothers, One Cart: Revisiting and Unpacking the Velvick Case of 1833	Stephen Pascoe Finishing the Business of Imperialism: The Suez Crisis and the Decolonisation of the Arab World

3:00pm–4:15pm AEDT

First Nations	Environmental	SSEAC	Migration	AWHN	War	Public History	Economic History	Social & Cultural	Colonialism, Violence, Slavery	General
3.4.1. Indigenous Leaders and Lawful Relations	3.4.2. Interactions of human and nature	3.4.3. Truth, activism, and history in the Asia-Pacific	3.4.4. Migrant Communities and the Unfinished Business of Chinese Business I Panel	3.4.5. New agendas for women’s and gender history	3.4.6. The Unfinished Business of the Holocaust and Australian History	3.4.7. History Lessons	3.4.8. Corporations and business culture	3.4.9. Trajectories of the Right in Australia after 1968: When the personal became reactionary	3.4.10. Rethinking Colonial Actors on the Frontier	3.4.11. New Medical Histories
Chaired by Joanna Cruickshank	Chaired by Nancy Cushing	Chaired by Kate McGregor	Chaired by Nathan Gardner	Chaired by Parisa Shams	Chaired by Ruth Balint	Chaired by Anna Kent	Chaired by David Blaazer	Chaired by Leigh Boucher	Chaired by Naomi Parry	Chaired by Georgia McWhinney
Ann Genovese & Julie Evans History and the Conduct of Lawful Relations	Josh Woodward Pioneers and Progress in tourist promotion for Mount Buffalo and the Blue Mountains, 1880–1900.	Vannessa Hearman The campaign for East Timorese family reunions in Australia	Bernard Keo More Chinese than the Chinese?: Hybridised Overseas Chinese Communities in the Age of Empire	Shirleene Robinson Unfinished Business, Unrecognised Volunteers? Women and the Volunteer Response to HIV/AIDS 1983–1996	Jan Lanicek This has nothing to do with Australia': Historical connections between Australia and the Holocaust	Barbara Kearns Alternative Facts: How the Fantasies of a Visiting Novelist have Coloured Australian Public History	Matthew Birchall The Inner Lives of Corporations	Timothy Jones God made Adam and Eve, not Adam and Steve: Creationism and the Ex–Gay Movement in 1980s Australia	Emily Lanman Tales from Fremantle Gaol: Prisoners and Punishment in the Swan River Colony, 1831–1841	James Watson Inventing Asbestosis: On the Framing of Asbestos-Related Diseases in Early Twentieth-Century England
Joanna Cruickshank & Amanda Lourie Conducting Lawful Relations (1): The Framlingham Petition	Claire Brennan Historians, hunters, and the place of a popular activity in public and historical consciousness	Belinda Lopez Honai Study Club	Kate Bagnall The Origins of Cantonese Migrants to Colonial Australasia: A Case Study	Karen Pack Crisis of Faith: the gendering of Australian religious history and marginalisation of minorities	Oleg Beyda Pushkin to Sydney: A Woman Under Nazi Occupation, 1941–43	Matilda Keynes Teaching History's 'Temporal Turn': Towards a Pedagogy of Possibility	Jack Fahey Corporate Communications and Mass–Automobilism in Australia: General Motors–Holden’s Magazines	Clare Monagle B.A. Santamaria as Culture Warrior	Nicholas Pitt The rhetoric and practice of colonisation in 1830s government–assisted emigration to New South Wales	Clarissa Carden Captain Mein’s Masturbating Monkey: Fears of Moral Contagion on the Nautical Training Ship 'Vernon'
Crystal McKinnon & Claire McLisky Conducting Lawful Relations (2): De-centring William Buckley	Simon Farley The Sparrow and the Bulbul: two non–native birds in the settler–Australian imaginary	Annie Pohlman & Jess Melvin The Aceh Truth and Reconciliation Commission and Forestalled History–Writing	Luke Yin Transnational Bigamy: Marriage, Law, and Identity in Treaty Port Shanghai 1909–1913	Louise Prowse From Pin Money to Side Hustle: A history of Australian rural women in ‘invisible’ business 1900–2020	Avril Alba 'One in the Eye?' Holocaust Memory at the National Museum of Australia	Neville Buch Wither Local History in the Academy? The shifting historiography in Local Studies and Local History	Claire Wright Above Board?: Interlocking Directorates and Corporate Contagion in 1980s Australia		Roger Ford Convict Workers and Moreton Bay	Natasha Rooney Ayurveda and Biological Plasticity: A Postcolonial Framing of Preconception in the Postgenomic Era
						Mark Hearn Reading the Future? The Late Modern History of the Fin de Siècle

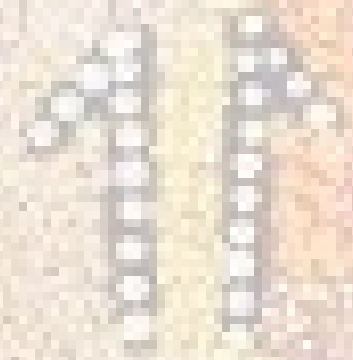

5:00pm–6:15pm AEDT

KEYNOTE
Chair: Timothy O'Leary

Alison Bashford
Keynote II: How do we think about population in the Anthropocene?

Thursday 2 December

Day Three

9:00am–10:15am AEDT

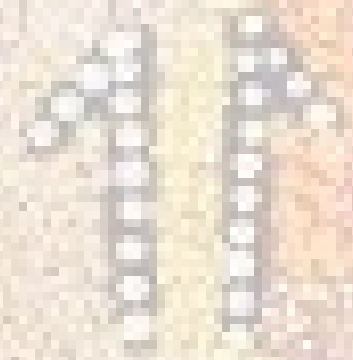

First Nations	Environmental	SSEAC	Migration	AWHN	War	Public History	Political	Social & Cultural	Colonialism, Violence, Slavery	General
4.1.1. Let’s talk about things: Sydney region Aboriginal objects in overseas museums, for instance	4.1.2. Intricate webs of interaction: women's experience of land, climate and fire	4.1.3. Political movements	4.1.4. Chinese Encounters	4.1.5. Gender & Cultural History	4.1.6. Australia’s Cold War	4.1.7. Statue Wars II	4.1.8. When Will They Learn? History and Memory in Australian Policymaking	4.1.9. Roundtable: Trove’s impact on historical research: A Roundtable	4.1.10. Histories of Africa and Australia	4.1. 11. New Welfare Histories
Chaired by Shona Coyne	Chaired by Katie Holmes	Chaired by Michael Barr	Chaired by Kate Bagnall	Chaired by Clare Monagle	Chaired by Sheila Fitzpatrick	Chaired by Richard White	Chaired by Carolyn Holbrook	Chaired by Kate Fullagar	Chaired by Stephen Pascoe	Chaired by Anne O'Brien
Eleanor Foster & Maria Nugent On Object Histories and Exchanges within early Colonial Sydney and the Hunter Region	Kerry Nixon ‘the wind is right for Burning’: Firestick Farming, White Fella Way	Peter Riddell Christian-Muslim Relations in Southeast Asia in the 20th and 21st Centuries: a work in progress	Louise Thatcher ‘What does a policeman know about a ship?’ Stopping Chinese stowaways to ‘White Australia’	Keagan Brewer The Voynich Manuscript: An Unfinished Business? An Unstarted Business?	Ellen Gray Australia and the Soviet Union: Negotiating the Re-establishment of Diplomatic Relations, 1954–59	Karen Fox Monuments and Miscreants: Researching Historical Reputations in the Shadow of the Statue Wars	James Walter Housing, cities and disadvantage: failures to learn?	Brett Holman, James Keating, Lyndall Ryan, Shurlee Swain & Aileen Weir	Pearl Nunn Visible or Invisible? Black Women and the Eighteenth Century British Archive	Betty O'Neill Stories of Home(lessness): Settled, Unsettled
Ray Ingrey et al. On La Perouse Aboriginal Community Engagements with Objects in Overseas Museums	Rebecca Jones Mad Dogs and Settler-Colonial Women go out in the Midday Sun	Jonathan Tehusijarana Pandu to Pemuda: Transnational youth culture and its influence on pemuda-ism in colonial Indonesia	Tess Gardner China’s ‘Flying Wedge’: Australian journalist-advisers and China’s entry into the First World War	James Worner Unfinished Men’s Business: Diversion and Diversity in Internment Theatre	Hirokazu Matsui Australia and Japan's Reengagement with the Southeast Asia, 1952–1957	Iva Glisic Activist Histories and Their Futures: A Monument to Collective Action at the ANU	Joshua Black You Either Don’t Act or You Do’: Speed, Stimulus, and Institutional Memory of the 1990s Recession		John Ogden Whitewash – The Lost Story of an African Australian	Cate O'Neill Caring for ageing Care Leavers: the impact of history on Australia’s aged care system
Matt Poll On the return of spears taken by Endeavour voyage from Kamay Botany Bay in 1770	Karen Twigg ‘So, we look forward to a better year’: Australian farm women and succession	Bronwyn Beech Jones The Footsteps I Follow: Tengkoë A. Sabariah and activism for women’s suffrage in colonial Indonesia	Daozhi Xu Opium, Aboriginal Protection, and Chinese Migrants in the 1890s	Chelsea Barnett Love, Lust, and Land Rights in The Naked Country (1984)	Robert Wyse Suspicious Minds: Official Australian Attitudes Towards Korean War POWs.	Emma Gleadhill & Katja Heath Vive L’Empereur!: Napoleon’s visual and material legacy in Australia	Jeffrey Hole Electricity problems? Call a historian. Learning from the history of electricity reform in Australia		Henry Reese Performing African Imperialism: Henry Morton Stanley’s Lecture Tour, 1891–92.

11:00am-12:15pm AEDT

[illegible]

Thursday 2 December

Day Three

1:00pm–2:15pm AEDT

First Nations	Environmental	SSEAC	Migration	AWHN	War	Public History	Political	Social & Cultural	Colonialism, Violence, Slavery	General
4.3.1. Settler colonial archives and Indigenous sovereignty	4.3.2. Dispossession, deserts and disaster	4.3.3. ‘Dealings with foreigners’: Outside intervention and Indonesian decolonisation, 1930s to 1960s	4.3.4. Gender, Migration, Mobility	4.3.5. Roundtable: History, Feminism & Reproductive Lifecycles	4.3.6. After World War Two. Communism and the Cold War	4.3.7. Food and the unfinished business of race, class and gender	4.3.8. New histories of Australian politics	4.3.9. Writing national histories/interpreting the 'enemy'	4.3.10. Australian Legacies of Slavery (Western Australia)	4.3.11. Activism and Protest
Chaired by Johanna Perheentupa	Chaired by Margaret Cook	Chaired by Susie Protschky	Chaired by Alexandra Dellios	Chaired by	Chaired by	Chaired by Nicki Tarulevicz	Chaired by Mark Dunn	Chaired by Ruth Balint	Chaired by Emma Christopher	Chaired by Iva Glisic
Sadie Heckenberg Our lives in Archives: Ancestral Articulations or Anthropological Accounts?	Michael Evans Outlining Australia’s Disaster Imaginary through nineteenth century chronologies	Julia Martinez Asian support for the League of Nations on anti-trafficking in Southeast Asia.	Bianka Vidonja Balanzategui Addressing exclusive narratives – female invisibility on the tropical northern frontier	Carla Pascoe Leahy, Catherine Kevin, Charlotte Greenhalgh, Kristen Natalier & Sianan Healy	Narrelle Morris Sir William Webb and his 'Unfinished Business' at the IMTFE, 1946–48	Lauren Samuelsson 'If anything has suffered in my house, it’s dinner': advice for working mothers in the AWW 1960s–70s	Martyn Lyons 'I am sir [sure] you will act as human bean': Letters to Robert Menzies, 1949–1966	David Brophy Unfinished business with China? Historians and public discussion in Australia	Jane Lydon 'Mr Wakefield’s Speaking Trumpets’: Abolishing Slavery and Colonising Systematically	Hannah Viney 'World without clouds': The Complex Motivations behind Women's Anti-nuclear Activism, 1945–1965
Monica Galassi, et al. Unfinished Business: Historians and Settler Colonial Archives	Freg J Stokes ‘The Cooperative Coloniser Society of New Australia’: Mapping an Experiment in Guaraní Dispossession.	Agnieszka Sobocinska A Wolf is Always a Wolf’: Resisting Western development intervention in 1960s Indonesia	Cobi Calyx Could Indigenous mobility have influenced early Mauritian migration?		Vashti Fox Aussies and Stinking Reds’: Cold War Communist Antifascism	Alison Vincent Convenient and economical but not pleasant to the eye: Selling Australian preserved meat 1860–1880	Chris Monnox Federalism, Personalities, and Rump Steak: The Federal Election of 1919	Mark Edele Decolonising the Curriculum: a history of the Soviet Empire after its fall	Georgina Arnott Western Australian Governor James Stirling’s West Indian Years	Portia Dilena The Long Fifties: Early 1960s Australian University Student Protest
Paul Turnbull Living with the Dead: Reflections on Repatriating Indigenous Ancestral Remains	Nicole Chalmer Australia’s Expanding Deserts: The Urgency of Drought and Desert Histories.	Adrian Vickers Indonesian Mohamad Bondan and Australian support for decolonisation	Karen Agutter Revisiting Unsupported Mothers: The ‘Big Picture’ Approach		Lian Jenvey The Apostasy of Harold Wells and the construction of NSW Coal Mining Communities 1938–50	Kathleen Burke Gender, Race and Class in Colonial Kitchens in the Dutch Indian Ocean Empire		Sheila Fitzpatrick Writing the History of a 'Finished' State	Zoë Laidlaw Writing Slavery into Australian History	Bobbie Oliver The Myth of the abusive anti-war protestor

3:00pm–4:15pm AEDT
First Nations	Environmental	SSEAC	Migration	AWHN	War	Public History	Political	Social & Cultural	Colonialism, Violence, Slavery	General
4.4.1 Stolen Generations	4.4.2. Roundtable: Sustainable Academia: Principles & Practices	4.4.3. Violence in Indonesian history: functional and exemplary	4.4.4. Migrants, refugees and agency 3	4.4.5. Queer and Trans History	4.4.6. Uncovering New Political Histories	4.4.7. Food, Fear, and Disgust Across Empire	4.4.8. Children and Politics	4.4.9. Education: past, present and future	4.4.10. Unfinished Histories of Colonialism	4.4.11. Sports Histories
Chaired by Alison Holland Richard Egan Ramifications of the 1916 restructure of the New South Wales Board for the Protection of Aborigines Anne Maree Payne Untold Suffering: Motherhood, Truth-Telling and the Bringing Them Home Inquiry Sam Dalgarno Contesting Bringing Them Home's history in the National Library of Australia's oral history project	Chaired by Andrea Gaynor, Carla Pascoe Leahy, Celeste Rodriguez Louro, Daniel May, Ruth Morgan & Simon Sleight	Chaired by Vannessa Hearman Gerry van Klinken Exemplary violence in East Java, 1949 Greg Poulgrain Inside 1965 – The role of Suharto Robert Cribb Incident at Bacan, 1942: everyday violence during the Japanese occupation Ana Dragojlovic & Kate McGregor Iswanto Hartono: Art and the Submerged History of Dutch Colonial Violence in Indonesia	Chaired by Ruth Balint Andonis Piperoglou ‘Dago’ Disavowal: the troubled history of a racial slur Claire Higgins Stopping their own boats: refugee agency and a new take on Australia’s resettlement history Jordy Silverstein Statelessness and the State	Chaired by Noah Riseman Kit Candlin Homosexuality and Slavery: Unfinished Business, a Case Study from Grenada. Robin Eames Trans pathologisation and the social mediation of madness in late 19th-early 20th c Australia Scott McKinnon The Club 80 Raids: Police, homosex and the campaign for gay law reform in New South Wales	Chaired by Tim Rowse Simon Graham Finding Voices in Silent Archives: The Evolution and Ethics of Intelligence History Tristan Moss Failure to Launch: Australian Rationales for Space Exploration Benjamin Jones ‘We must not become a billabong republic’: The republican campaign against the 1999 referendum	Chaired by Lauren Samuelsson Nicki Tarulevicz Millions of Flies Hovering: Fear and Food-borne Diseases in Singapore, 1900–1970 Frieda Moran Encounters of Food in the Australian Colonial Contact Zone	Chaired by Emily Gallagher & Frank Bongiorno Playing Politics? Towards a Political History of Australian Children Kristine Moruzi The Politics of Children’s Charity Isobelle Barrett Meyering Debating Children’s Political Rights: Australian Responses to the International Year of the Child	Chaired by Anna Clark Anna Kent Fee Free – How Education Subsidies changed Australia's Place in the 1970s Asia Pacific Elsbeth Grant Learning State and Territory History under a National History Curriculum Bri McKenzie Queering History Curricula: Reflections on Pedagogy and Content in Higher Education	Chaired by Bart Ziino Jonathan Ritchie The Unfinished Business of Colonialism: Australia’s Uncomfortable Relationship with Papua New Guinea Brad Underhill Australian post-war colonial practice in PNG and Indigenous responses Nicholas Ferns Defending Colonialism: Australia in the United Nations Trusteeship Council, 1947–1975 Matthew Fitzpatrick Can Colonial Business Be Finished?	Chaired by Jan Lanicek Jane Hunt Archival (In)Significance: the partial inclusion of women’s sport in Australian archives Matthew Coote Mapping the History of Competitive Bodybuilding in Australia Keith Rathbone The Unfinished Business of the Olympics: War and Remembrance at the 1920 Antwerp Olympiad Richard Naughton History’s Unfinished Business – Tennis in the 1930s

5:00pm–6:15 pm AEDT
	4.5.2. Keynote: Truth-telling through Country		4.5.4. Roundtable: The Twentieth Anniversary of the 'Tampa election'							4.5.11. Roundtable: Unsettled Domesticities
	Chaired by Danielle Carney Flakelar		Chaired by Behrouz Boochani, Elahe Zivardar, Moones Masnsoubi, Claudia Tazreiter & Klaus Neumann.							Chaired by Victoria Haskins Andrew Gorman–Murray, Karen Agutter, Katrina Dernelley, Penny Edmonds & Penny Russell