TOURS

ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER HERITAGE TRAIL AT ANU

Discover the cultural significance of the ANU Acton Campus, the way in which Aboriginal people have used the area for thousands of years, and the continuing culture and connection to Country on this guided walking tour with Ngunawal elder Wally Bell. Learn about the importance of Sullivans Creek and Black Mountain, navigation across Country, bush foods and medicines, ceremony and tradition, and the way in which the local Aboriginal people managed their landscape.

CULTURAL INSTITUTIONS REPOSITORIES TOUR

An afternoon tour of the massive repositories of the National Archives of Australia and the Australian War Memorial, in the Canberra suburb of Mitchell with guides Anne-Marie Condé (NAA) and Shane Casey (AWM). Big things in store! (Little things too.) Come and see.

TOUR OF THE MUSEUM OF AUSTRALIAN DEMOCRACY AT OLD PARLIAMENT HOUSE

An hour-long tour of this historic building will take delegates around its historic spaces, into some of the key exhibitions (including those currently being operated by the NAA) as well as into some behind-the-scenes spaces not usually seen by general visitors.

TOUR OF THE NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AUSTRALIA

Join historian and curator Martha Sear for a tour of the museum's galleries, focussing on the historical thought and ideas that underpin the museum's practice.
